Elevation Pitch from Munya, Group Chief Executive Officer

We started this business and then it was just a passion to better ourselves. Having worked and given everything for the Dream, the Vision was always about People. We had an ambition to positively influence those around us and decades later, we celebrate each milestone, the People keep winning.

The Vision brought about the need to ensure we provide a gateway and platform for the African Business to gain insight, skills and resources that would catapult their value to global status. Our Partnership with world leading Technology brands enables us to provide first class service to our business community.

Omni People Distribution (O.P Disti) upholds a People based culture, People being Our Customers, Human Resources and Suppliers. We understand and share the same values of what our Businesses mean to the livelihood of the various stakeholders.
